Do you have a strong work ethic and are passionate about education and community programs? Be part of a team where you can work for a non-profit organization and make an impact on students to learn more! You can make a difference in the world by giving students the opportunity to access free and affordable educational services!

About Vancouver Region Educational Services:

Vancouver Region Educational Services (VRES) is a non-profit organization offering accessible and meaningful learning experiences to communities across the Vancouver Region. We support growth through educational programs, youth initiatives, and community partnerships that encourage skill development, confidence, and creativity.

About this opportunity:

As a Camp Counsellor, you will help deliver interactive educational camps and community programs. You will supervise children and youth while leading activities, supporting learning tasks, and ensuring a safe and positive camp environment. This role emphasizes teamwork, communication, and hands-on involvement in program delivery.

Key responsibilities are as follows:

- Lead and support activities such as arts, STEM projects, sports, reading circles, and learning games
- Supervise campers, encourage participation, and support positive group dynamics
- Communicate with families and provide updates related to camper needs and daily activities
- Assist with set-up, clean-up, and organization of materials
- Support program accessibility for participants with diverse needs
- Help maintain safe and inclusive camp environments
- Provide general program support across Metro Vancouver

Requirements:

- Interest in education, youth programming, sports, arts, or community activities
- Ability to supervise children and work in active, fast-paced environments
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills for working with families and students
- Ability to work 35 to 40-hour work weeks, including evenings and weekends based on assigned shifts
- Mobility to commute to multiple camp locations across Metro Vancouver
- A valid Standard First Aid with CPR-C certification and a satisfactory Vulnerable Sector Check are required (not reimbursed). These may be obtained after securing the role but must be completed before the first day of work
- Candidates must be between 15-30 years of age, a Canadian citizen/permanent resident/refugee protection status, and have a valid SIN.

Assets:

- Experience working with children or youth in camps, schools, or community programs
- Experience in sports, art, language, STEM, or recreation activities
- Fluency in more than one language (reading, writing, speaking, listening)
- Access to a car and a valid Class 5/7 British Columbia driver's license

This is a fully in-person position. Salary ranges from $18-26/hour, dependent on experience, skills, education, and role.
