

Day Camp Leader

Do you have a strong work ethic and are passionate about education and community programs? Be part of a team where you can work for a non-profit organization and make an impact on students to learn more! You can make a difference in the world by giving students the opportunity to access free and affordable educational services!

About Vancouver Region Educational Services:

Vancouver Region Educational Services (VRES) is a non-profit organization offering accessible and meaningful learning experiences to communities across the Vancouver Region. We support growth through educational programs, youth initiatives, and community partnerships that encourage skill development, confidence, and creativity.

About this opportunity:

As a Day Camp Leader, you will deliver day camp programming that supports fun, educational, and engaging experiences for children and youth. You will lead activities, supervise participants, and collaborate with other staff to create safe and inclusive environments.

Key responsibilities are as follows:

- Lead activities such as art projects, STEM tasks, sports, games, and learning activities
- Supervise participants and assist with maintaining positive camp behavior and engagement
- Set up and organize materials, assist with check-in and pick-up procedures, and help monitor daily routines
- Provide support to campers who require assistance, encouragement, or behavior guidance
- Help demonstrate program expectations to junior volunteers or support staff
- Provide program support at various sites across Metro Vancouver

Requirements:

- Interest in youth programming, education, sports, arts, or recreation
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills for working with families and participants
- Ability to work in fast-paced, interactive environments with children
- Ability to work 35 to 40-hour work weeks, including evenings and weekends based on assigned shifts
- Mobility to commute to multiple camp locations across Metro Vancouver
- A valid Standard First Aid with CPR-C certification and a satisfactory Vulnerable Sector Check are required (not reimbursed). These may be obtained after securing the role but must be completed before the first day of work
- Candidates must be between 15-30 years of age, a Canadian citizen/permanent resident/refugee protection status, and have a valid SIN.

Assets:

- Experience working with children or youth in camps, schools, or community programs
- Leadership experience in education, sports, arts, language, or STEM settings
- Fluency in more than one language (reading, writing, speaking, listening)
- Access to a car and a valid Class 5/7 British Columbia driver's license

This is a fully in-person position. Salary ranges from $18-26/hour, dependent on experience, skills, education, and role.
